

MONICA & DARIAN LEWIS

Monica Lewis is a leading expert in the industry of etiquette, protocol, and, CEO of The Monica Lewis School of Etiquette. She is an avid believer that social presentation and behaviors are important to be successful in today's society. Seeking to promote awareness of this fact, Monica is a passionate instructor who is dedicated to providing quality and professional training to her clients. Mrs. Lewis is renowned for her vibrant personality and highly interactive presentation skills. Darian Lewis is a native Houstonian and holds a B.A. in Business Administration/ Marketing from the University of Houston-Downtown, and an MBA from Colorado Technical University. He has the unique ability to transition seamlessly from the boardroom to the dining room to the stage and the podium or pulpit. He's a highly sought-after presenter and instructor. Together, their infectious laugh, charisma, and unique ability to command an audience has allowed them to share their advice, experiences, and wisdom with audiences across the country.