

STANDING UP TO BULLIES & CYBERBULLIES

List some of the effects of bullying:

---

---

---

A social psychological theory that states that individuals are less likely to offer help to a victim when there are other people present is called

---

List a few ways you can show disapproval of bullying or cyberbullying behavior:

---

---

---

---

What should you do if bullied or cyberbullied?

---

---

---

---

---

IDEA BANK

poor school performance

guilt

increased risk of substance abuse difficulty maintaining social relationships

The Bystander Effect

taking drugs and drinking alcohol less likely to be educated and employed risk of spousal or child abuse adverse mental health outcomes increased risk of psychiatric hospitalization higher levels of mental distress

David's Law was passed in 2017. What areas of Texas Code did it change or amend?

---

---

When does cyberbullying move from a Class B Misdemeanor to a Class A Misdemeanor?

---

---

---

In addressing a bullying situation through the legal system, what is the most common way, currently, to try to stop cyberbullying?

---

---

List the consequences of cyberbullying under the Texas Criminal Code.

---

---

---

---

How can you anonymously report bullying or cyberbullying at your school?

---

---

---

IDEA BANK

Education Code

$2,000 fine

suicide baiting

Criminal Code

file a police report

6 months in jail

Civil Code

have a cease-and-desist letter sent

$4,000 fine

school district website

repeat offender

12 months in jail

violation of an injunction