

IT JUST TAKES ONE PERSON

List some of the effects of bullying:

adverse mental health outcomes

increased risk of substance abuse

risk of spousal or child abuse difficulty maintaining social relationships

poor school performance

less likely to be educated or employed

A social psychological theory that states that individuals are less likely to offer help to a victim when there are other people present is called

The Bystander Effect

List a few ways you can show disapproval of bullying or cyberbullying behavior:

tell bully to stop

get others to stand up with them to the bully

help the victim

tell an adult

What should you do if bullied or cyberbullied?

ask the bully to stop

don't respond

save the evidence

report, block, & disengage

file a police report

IDEA BANK

poor school performance

tell bully to stop

file a police report

increased risk of substance abuse

less likely to be educated or employed

difficulty maintaining social relationships

ask the bully to stop

The Bystander Effect

report, block, & disengage

get others to stand up with them to the bully

help the victim

don't respond

risk of spousal or child abuse

adverse mental health outcomes

tell an adult

save the evidence

David's Law was passed in 2017. What areas of Texas Code did it change or amend?

Education Code

Civil Code

Criminal Code

When does cyberbullying move from a Class B Misdemeanor to a Class A Misdemeanor?

Suicide baiting

violation of an injunction

Under the Texas Civil Code, what is the most common way, currently, to try to stop cyberbullying?

Have a cease-and-desist letter sent by a lawyer.

List the consequences of cyberbullying under the Texas Criminal Code.

$2000 fine

6 months in jail

$4000 fine

12 months in jail

How can you anonymously report bullying or cyberbullying at your school?

school district website

IDEA BANK

Education Code

$2,000 fine

suicide baiting

Criminal Code

6 months in jail

Civil Code

have a cease-and-desist letter sent

$4,000 fine

school district website

12 months in jail

violation of an injunction